UFO AUCTION NOV. PROGRAM

By Amy Cottrell

Don't forget to unload your stash – wherever it is stored. UFOs (unfinished objects) will be collected by Amy Cottrell at the October or November meeting and in between if you are desperate to make room for goodies from your trip to Houston.

We will accept most anything that is craft related – quilting, crochet, knitting, fabrics, notions, accessories, embroidery cards, sewing machines, ironing boards, etc. We do ask that all of the parts be in order or easily obtainable to finish the project. Bored? Have nothing to do? Buy some UFO squares at the UFO Auction, complete them, and then donate them to the Guild's auction next spring. If an item does not sell, the item will be donated to Youth Alternatives or the Sam Shelter or returned to the donator if requested in advance.

Call at 830-981-8832 if you have any questions or need to meet Amy to unload, oops, I mean donate some goodies. If the goods are auctioned for more than you value it, the difference is tax deductible when you buy an item. The auction price is deductible for the donator.

WINTER RETREAT

OK ladies, there's still time to sign up for the Winter Retreat. Those of you that have attended in the past can attest to the fact that a great time has always been had by all.

It will be held at Harambe Oaks January 17-19, 2003. The cost is $165.00 which includes 2 nights lodging and 6 meals. Dinner Friday, 3 meals on Saturday and 2 on Sunday.

I'll be at the guild meetings to take up your $30 non-refundable deposit which I need by the October guild meeting with the balance by the December meeting. I look forward to seeing you all there.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM

From Saturday's program, it was easy to see why mini-demos continue to be popular. We had four highly-talented members of the guild share their secrets and techniques, and they had a LOT to share.

De LeClare demonstrated how to make the invisible appliqué stitch that has made her quilts award-winners – now if she could only help the rest of us learn to thread a #11 Straw, we'll be in business.

Amy Cottrell exhibited the basic elements of silk ribbon embroidery, from threading the needle and making the knot to letting the ribbon do the work in creating leaves and flowers.

Betty Opiela (with her able assistant Nancy Nehring) explained how to create breathtakingly beautiful colors right in your own bathtub (all right, so they use little jars – but think of the possibilities!).

And Bernie Farris challenged her audiences to think creatively and expand their art beyond the traditional – who knew that one block, turned one way or colored another, could become a vibrant, moving quilt.

Thanks to all five of our Guild Superstars for an interesting afternoon.

President has offered the excess folding tables and chairs in the storage facility to Trinity United Methodist Church, their board was expected to accept the donation at their meeting on September 10th. While at the church, the president discussed the option of the church's custodian or youth group as an option for setting up meeting tables/chairs. Cost for the custodian's services = $50.00/meeting. The church will notify us of the cost for youth group services, as well as the availability of both options, soon.

Quilt Show: Lois Beauchamp reported that Linda Carlson has completed quilting on the Raffle Quilt and that the binding is being attached now.

Fashion Show: On schedule, with many entries submitted within the last few weeks. The commitment to the hotel is for 150 attendees, but less than that number of tickets have been sold.

Programs: Holly Nelson reported that September's program would be mini-demos, with presentations by 4 guild members. October's guest speaker, Fran Snay, will be sending 2 quilts as samples of her workshops. November's program will be the UFO Auction, with Amy Cottrell presiding.

Unfinished business: The president will proceed with disposal of excess material in the storage facility, as approved by the membership at the August meeting. The excess material (except for the folding chairs and tables) will be donated to Youth Alternatives.

New Business: The President passed out archival job descriptions for Board positions (dated September 1990), and asked that they are reviewed and recommendation made for modifications or updates.

Ida Tyson Blankenship moved that the guild continue with its support of the American Quilt Study Group with a donation of $100.00(as has been done in previous years). Holly Nelson seconded the motion. The motion passed.

There being no other business the meeting adjourned.
Minutes reported by Holly Nelson.

PATRIOTIC QUILT PROGRESS

The queen size patriotic quilt is moving along. A huge thanks to Judy White who assembled the entire top at summer retreat. Thanks also to Betty Opiela who put on the borders. Dixie Bradbury of Seventh Heaven Quilt Shop has donated the Hobbs cotton batting and the backing. Her daughter-in-law, Gretchen Bradbury has generously agreed to quilt the top. Please thank them for us when you visit their shop on North New Braunfels. When that part is done, Valerie Arcement has volunteered to bind the quilt. I will then work with the Fire Department and the Firefighter's Union to determine the best way to maximize its fund raising value. A preliminary thought is to raffle it, with emphasis on selling tickets to all law enforcement agencies in the area. I will make the label, which will contain all of the maker's names in the order the quilt has been assembled.

The two smaller tops will be finished and used to raise funds for other emergency personnel. Perhaps the police and the county sheriffs? Thanks to all of you for your help in making this possible.

Amy Cottrell 830-981-8832

WANTED: Quilters who are willing to finish quilt blocks and tops into completed quilts. Several antique dealers have contacted me with this request. If you are interested, please call Sherry Allred, 210-656-0237. I will provide your name and number to the dealers.

DIRECTORY REVISION

Margie Cook has asked that we publish what should be her Directory listing.

The info is: Margie A. Cook, 18860 Luckey Road, Atascosa, TX 78002, 830-709-4663, ocook@stic.net

On-Line Report

More and more of us are spending time on-line and we thought it might be appropriate to call your attention to some newer quilting sources.

The Texas Quilt Guide is found at www.texasquiltguide.com. It contains listings for Texas shops, shows, guilds, appraisers, pattern companies instructors, machine and hand quilters and other quilt related information. It just recently went national so if you're taking a trip you can go to their national page and find listings by state. This part of the site is still developing so listings are somewhat limited at the moment.

They also publish a newsletter, available either by E-mail or snail mail. This newsletter is chiefly special offers from shops and other quilting businesses or ads for quilting events. There's a $5.00 charge for the mailed version but the e-mail is free although they do ask for a "donation".

And you MUST check the official web site of the IQA (Houston show and others). There is much information about the events at Houston this year and especially there is a complete list of the judged show finalists (See the item on page 2).
