A Garden of Quilts September 16th, 17th, & 18th 2005

Our Quilt show, "A Garden of Quilts" is almost here and the show team has been working hard to bring you a wonderful event. By now all the entries should have arrived in the hands of Janet Miller and Holly Nelson our program coordinator. You will be receiving a letter in the mail with instructions on quilt drop off and an entrant ribbon which we hope you will proudly wear at the show.

Gabrielle Swain has entrusted to us ten of her beautiful quilts for exhibit. I am very excited about this special display. Gabrielle will also be at our preview party and has agreed to give a short talk prior to the awards being handed out. Larry Beauchamp will be giving his fabulous PowerPoint presentation before we enter the hall to see the wonderful garden of quilts! You will also have the opportunity to meet judges Nancy Brenan Daniel and Kathy Kansier. Other special exhibits include the guild's "Story books and Quilts to Go Project" and some of the Guilds Quilts for display celebrating 25 years as an organization.

Amy has a wonderful vendor mall which I hope you will all visit and support.

A couple of final pitches: Lois Beauchamp needs more items for the silent auction and Janice Frankenberger (681-2276 janicef@stic.net) requests hand crafted, quilt related items for the boutique. We also need more volunteers to help with various jobs. Please call Tess Weaver (696-5609 or email Tessw@satx.rr.com.)

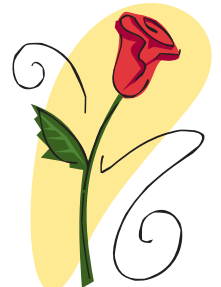

I cannot thank all of you enough for your generous time orchestrating this wonderful event.

It is time to celebrate our quilting passion and share our work with others to enjoy.

See you at the show,
De Leclair, Janet Miller and show team

Calico Rose Award

This month's calico rose goes to someone who goes the extra mile to locate and then nurture vendors for our quilt show. She is one of the primary reasons that our show is a financial success. Thank you Amy Cottrell for your dedication and presistance. Lois Beauchamp nominated Amy.

Sense of a Goose

—Author Unknown

Found at this URL: <http://www.energizeinc.com/reflect/parable.html>

When you see geese flying along in "V" formation, you might consider what science has discovered as to why they fly that way: as each bird flaps its wings, it creates an up lift for the bird immediately following. By flying in "V" formation, the whole flock adds at least 71 percent greater flying range than if each bird flew on its own.

People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going more quickly and easily because they are traveling on the thrust of one another.

When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to go it alone, and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird in front.

If we have as much sense as a goose, we will stay in formation with those people who are headed the same way we are.

When the head goose gets tired, it rotates back in the wing and another goose flies point.

It is sensible to take turns doing demanding jobs, whether with people or with geese flying south.

Geese honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed.

What messages do we give when we honk from behind?

Finally ... and this is important ... when a goose gets sick or is wounded by gunshot, and falls out of formation, two other geese fall out with that goose and follow it down to lend help and protection. They stay with the fallen goose until it is able to fly or until it dies, and only then do they launch out on their own, or with another formation to catch up with their group.

If we have the sense of a goose, we will stand by

Articles for the newsletter for August

2005 Quilt show Sleeve requirement

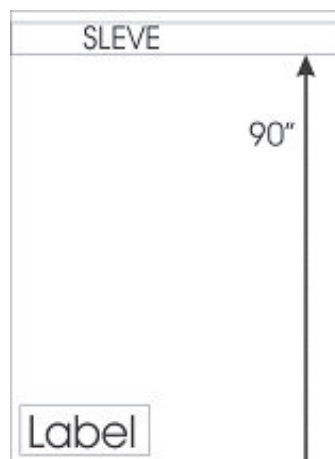

2005 Quilt Show is near and it is time to complete all your projects for display. This includes the all important hanging sleeve/rod pocket. It is very important that your quilt be displayed safely and in an attractive manner.

All quilts entered into the quilt show must have a 4" rod pocket / hanging sleeve attached, running the entire width of the quilt.

The only exception to the 4" rule is a miniature or a very small quilt, which should have a 2" sleeve or a garment where a sleeve is not required.

Please be aware that the rod pocket is all that supports your quilt during the duration of the show. Therefore the sleeve should be FIRMLY attached with stitches (not basted or pinned).

How to construct a quilt sleeve: Cut a strip of fabric 8.5" wide and the length equal to the width of your quilt. Make a narrow hem at each end of the strip. With wrong sides together, sew along the long edges using a 1/4" seam allowance to make a fabric tube. Stitch the tube down (top and bottom) to the top of the quilt. The rod goes through the tube, so do not stitch the ends of the tube closed.

We look forward to sharing your work for all to enjoy.

Silent Auction

We are looking for items for the Silent Auction at the quilt show in September. We would like small wall hangings, and possibly, crib quilts. You can give them to me at a guild meeting, or call me at home and I will pick them up, or other arrangements can be made. I do need them by the Sept. guild meeting, so that the sign up sheets can be made.

Meet the 2005 Judges:

Nancy Brenan Daniel

Nancy learned to love quilts from my grandmother, Mary Talkington Ritzenthaler, who encouraged her to play with fabrics and quilts at a very young age. Nancy enjoys quilt making. She loves writing about, designing, and teaching hand quilting, appliqué, color and design, and rotary patchwork techniques.

An art educator for more than 30 years — teaching art education, art history, design and of course — quilt making! Although quilt making and design currently take up much of her time she continues to travel to teach and judge.

Active in the quilt world for many years as a popular teacher and designer Nancy is also the author of more than 20 books on sewing crafts and quilt making. She is a regular contributor to quilting and crafts magazines. Another favorite honor came when her “Flowers of Friendship Quilt” was invited to participate in the National Quilt Festival, Branson Mo, where it earned the Viewers Choice Award and became the cover quilt for their Engagement Calendar. Nancy had the honor and pleasure of judging the International Quilt Festival in 2003.

Nancy is a member of the NQA, Inc. and a NQA Certified Teacher and Certified Quilt Judge. She is active in several local and national quilt guilds and is a Charter Member of the American Quilter’s Society and a member of the Museum of the American Quilter’s Society.

Nancy earned a BA and MA in Art History and Art Education Degree for grades one through twelve, and also hold an Adult Education Certificate from the Maricopa Community College District.

She is the mother of three adults and grandmother of three and is also the companion to two “furkids” — Toby the Airedale and Sashie the Wonder Girl-dog!

Kathy Kansier

Kathy Kansier was born and raised in Wisconsin. When Kathy was four years old, her mother began to teach her embroidery and other crafts. Her interest in sewing garments was sparked in 4-H and her 8th grade home economics class. Kathy’s early quilt making skills were self-taught, based on general sewing knowledge, trial and error experiences and information from quilting books and magazines. Kathy graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in psychology and philosophy. By the early 1980s, she was married, living in Western Wisconsin and raising her family. During the 1980s, Kathy began to focus on quilt history and design. She became acquainted with an Amish community in Western Wisconsin in 1984, and her study of their quilts and techniques improved her own piecing and hand quilting skills significantly. Because of her love of quilts and quilt history, Kathy began to pursue a career in quilt appraising in the late 1990s. In 2001, she became a Certified Appraiser of Quilted Textiles with the American Quilter’s Society. She now travels through the United States, appraising quilts at shows, guilds and shops.

Kathy’s greatest joy is to encourage quilt makers. This joy translates not only to her classrooms but on the judging floor as well. Kathy began judging quilt shows in the late 1990s. She has also served as a volunteer on many judging floors. In total, she has been involved either as a volunteer or a judge in over 35 quilt shows. Her judging experience has ranged from local county fairs to national shows. Kathy writes regular articles for The Appliqué Society Newsletter, The International Machine Quilters Association magazine and other quilt-related magazines and newsletters.

Kathy is a strong supporter of local quilt guilds. She has been an active member of the Ozark Piecemakers Quilt Guild since 1992.

TEXAS FOLK LIFE FESTIVAL

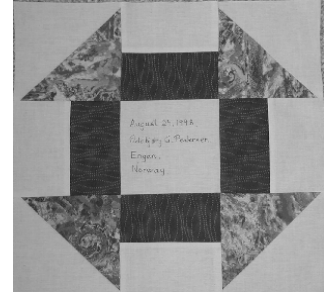

This year's Texas Folk Life Festival has past, but it's not too late to acknowledge the fact that 23 quilters donated a grand total of 104 hours to quilting at the frame at the Institute of Texan Cultures during the festival. Thank you, ladies, for your participation in the festival. Let's make a date to do it again next year. Lucille Shean, Chair, Folk Life Festival Committee.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

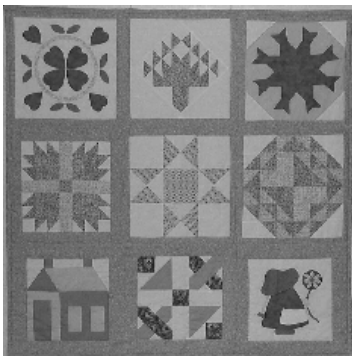

The Community Education Committee is currently taking inventory of the quilts and quilt blocks they take along on their visits to local elementary schools. If you have any quilts or orphan quilt blocks you would like to donate, please contact Betty Tope, Chair, Community Education Committee.

BRIGHT HOPES

Have you ever watched the flurry of activity surrounding the Bright Hopes table at quilt meetings? For every kit that flies off the table, it seems as if a completed quilt is returned. No wonder the Bright Hopes project is thriving! We extend a special thanks to Sharon Ross for volunteering to distribute kits and collect quilts for Debra who was in the throes of moving into her new home this weekend. Debra Pavelka, Chair, Bright Hopes Committee

STORYBOOKS AND QUILTS TO GO

On September 11, 1999, Kolodzie Harper donated Patchwork Tales (Roth & Phang, 1984), a charming story about a family memory quilt. During today's show 'n tell, Sandra Retsloff unveiled the quilt she made to complement this story and described how she shared the book and quilt with preschoolers at a local day care center. We suspect Sandra has caught the BUG to make another quilt because someone saw her looking through the basket containing new storybooks after the Guild meeting. Watch out! Her enthusiasm may be contagious! Barbara Gilstad, Chair, Storybooks and Quilts to Go Committee

Sunshine and Shadows

Lani Nunley's father passed away in on Monday, June 13, 2005. Our condolences and prayers are with Lani.

Kitty Janiga's husband, Ernie, had a heart attack on Tuesday, July 5, during diagnostic tests at the hospital. Our hopes for a speedy and full recovery.

Heads up to the Ruth Felty and her board and especially to Judy Miller for finding us a brighter, larger, new "home" for our meetings. The plan is to move there for the September meeting.

If you have any news you want published, please email qorg@aol.com or call Amy at 830-981-8832.

Youth Alternatives Committee Chair: Jean Powell

Have you ever noticed the basket sitting on the floor near the double doors leading into the guild meeting place? Have you ever wondered why those little bars of soap and miniature bottles of shampoo were being collected?

The Youth Alternatives Committee of the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild is chaired by Jean Powell. She and Carla Schladoer spend an average of three hours per month presorting and packing items donated by members. These are then taken to The Bridge Emergency Shelter which provides a home for up to thirty days for children ages seven to seventeen in crisis situations.

The guild's involvement with The Bridge began about a dozen years ago with a call for donated sewing supplies the children could use to make take-along pillows. The response was immediate and overwhelming. Someone wanted to know if The Bridge could use gently worn clothing, as well. Upon investigation it was learned that The Bridge thrift shop will accept most second-hand items in good condition. - clothing, TV sets, VCRs, holiday decorations, and even furniture. Donations are sorted carefully on-site with suitable items first being offered to the residents before being placed in the thrift shop. All money from thrift shop sales goes directly to The Bridge.

Because The Bridge operates on a limited budget not much money is able to be allocated for the everyday "luxuries" which most youngsters take for granted. Jean and Carla have been told that the children are especially grateful for hygiene items such as soap, shampoo, and toothbrushes. T-shirts with modern designs are very popular with the children, and things that add a homey touch to their space - like posters and prints - are always happily received. Even things as prosaic as plastic ice-cream tubs are put to use by the children and the adults who care for them.

Jean Powell shares the thank-you notes sent by The Bridge with guild members during announcement time at the monthly meetings. So, if you find yourself with an overflowing drawer of mini-toiletries from hotel stays, a TV set that is no longer being used, furniture that is "too good to throw away" but no longer needed, or a box full of outgrown clothing, please call Jean Powell at 684-6425. You'll be happy knowing your cast-offs have found an appreciative home and that you have helped children in a difficult situation.
