President's Notes

Welcome new Guild members, Wendy Crook-Able, Nancy Emback, Gloria Webb and Loretta Valenta. With their Church bee, Gloria and Loretta have made 450 stockings for the troops in Afghanistan.

I think the Houston Quilt Show should have been called the San Antonio Quilt Show this year. Holly Nelson, Kit Kucinkas, and Karen Nanos had guilts in the judged exhibit. The special exhibit, Quilts That Heal, commemorated 9/11. The blocks were made by Japanese guilters, set and guilted by GSAQG members. Several Guild members commented about getting to see their quilt again, wish we could have taken pictures. As I wandered thru the special exhibit of Texas Guild Award Winning Quilts I found four GSAQG quilts. Vicki Owens, Marti Kraatz with 2 quilts and Dresses on Parade by Marti, Linda, Lori, Gail, Sue, Pat, Bobbie, Kay and Pat. Sandra Bloom had a beautiful doll, The King's Secret Gypsy. Betty Brister (My Friends Made Me Do It hanging at the Quilt Museum). Dot Collins (My Stars! It's a Baltimore and Once Upon A Time at the Quilt Museum) and our A San Antonio Fiesta guilt are in the Lone Stars III, A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1986-2011. I never thought I'd see my name on a guilt in Houston but thanks to all the Guild members who worked on the Fiesta guilt and owner/Guild member Dale Flashberg there I was. If I missed a Guild member's quilt in Houston, I apologize.

Several Guild members asked why no program for the November meeting? November is our annual business meeting, election and budget for 2012. Not knowing if there were going to be any issues/ problems I told Mary McCarthy, VP for Programs, no outside speaker.

Happy Holidays to you and your family. Please remember the soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines serving in far off lands and seas.

Janet Miller, President, GSAQG

The Christmas party is going to be a great time to share food and fellowship with all our members. Please remember to bring a dish to share. The guild will be providing ham, shrimp and drinks. We will also be playing a white elephant gift exchange which is always fun. If you want to participate, please bring a wrapped gift - can be hand made or purchased but should not be more than $5.00 in value.

Secret Pals begin at 8:30am and the general meeting begins at 11:00am. There will be NO services. Hope to see you all there!

It was great to see so many GSAQG entries at Houston International this year. We were well represented.

The Alliance for American Quilts annual fundraiser starts on ebay 14 Nov through 12 Dec, selling different groups of quilts each week. See all the entries at allianceforamericanquilts.org or the weekly items on ebay. The Alliance conducted the Save Our Stories interviews in Houston of contributors to Karey Bresenhan's new book.

Auction 2012 Update

ellenhernandez@hotmail.com; 520-1335

MORE THAN FOUR DOZEN auction quilt kits are available for check out from Ellen at Guild meetings - includes top, batting, backing and pre-cut binding. Sizes range from wall to king bed.

Members - please check out a kit! I will be bringing about 12 kits every month until May. Items need to be completed by August.

Our partner for the 6 October 2012 Auction is Returning Heroes Home. This non-profit San Antonio organization raised private funds to build the Warrior Family Support Center at Fort Sam Houston and is now trying to complete Phase II, a Therapeutic Garden and Recreation Area. All the work you do to support our Auction means a portion of the proceeds will support Returning Heroes Home as well. See www.returningheroeshome.org.

Thanks to Auction Committee volunteers Ruth Felty who will store completed quilts, and Sherry Duringer who will Chair Verifiers. Still needed: Registration & Floor Walkers & Baggers.

A big THANKS to: Cathy Baisley for completing 2 quilts, the ITC hand quilters for finishing Autumn Harvest, and Lyn Komada for donating a sashiko batik quilt (see November Bring and Brag), and Carol Rouse and her QPC workers who turned in a tote full of items to be quilted.

January Auction Bee, after Guild meeting at St. Andrew, will be doing hand stitching - binding and labels. Bring your sewing kit and stay awhile to help.

Call for bibliophiles!!

We will be conducting an inventory of the Guild's book library January 7, 2012 at the Guild storage. Volunteers are needed to help with this inventory so we can get to as much as possible in one day!! Partners are best as one will pull the books and call them out to a partner to check against a list I will give you. I have asked to have access to the storage by 8:30 that morning. Bring drinks and I will bring snacks and a lunch! Plan to stay as long as you can, but any hours you can give me will be greatly appreciated. Being in January, it may be cold outside but we will be inside the storage unit. Dress in layers just in case!!

Call or email me to let me know if you can partake in this book party!!! Note we have over 1600 books in our collection!!!

Common Threads Pieces of the Past: U. S. Sanitary Commission Quilts

Ellen Hernandez

What happens when an American President asks women to help his 75,000 troops? In 1861, women organized groups across the nation, brainstormed ways to raise funds, held Fairs, collected an abundance of supplies, provided hands on compassionate care, and made over 250,000 quilts! The U.S. Sanitary Commission (USSC), the pre-cursor of the Red Cross, developed as a volunteer civilian organization with about 10,000 Ladies Aid Societies throughout the North.

Some quilt patterns used by the USSC women included album blocks, Nine Patch, and Chimney Sweep, all of which could be signed. Personal messages were often included. A discovered document included the story of a soldier who was near death in a Beaufort hospital. When his bed was changed, a USSC quilt was placed on it. The soldier became revived when he noticed that his wife's name was written on one of the blocks, and he recovered from his wounds.

The USSC chapters kept meticulous records of their work and donations. They contributed bandages, medicines, food, clothing, linens, toiletries, stationary, and sewing kits, as well as quilts. The cot sized quilts were about 48" x 84" and could also be used as a bedroll. A USSC oval logo stamp was put on the quilts. Because of their heavy use, staining from surgeries, or being used as burial cloths, only about five of these quilts have been located. This USSC 1860s Cross X quilt is displayed in the A.K. Smiley Library's Lincoln Memorial Shrine Museum in Redlands, CA.

Another surviving quilt came from the women of Dublin, NH. This blue, brown and red Nine Patch is made of 40 blocks. Inscriptions include a dedication to the towns 60 volunteer soldiers (23 died during the War.) The 1863 Dublin Quilt resurfaced in 1968 at a CA charity sale. The woman who bought the quilt gave it to her friend, Jan Dodge. Jan liked old quilts, but saw that it was fragile and packed it away. In 1985, Jan attended a Civil War quilt presentation by the American Quilt Study Group and learned of the USSC. After some time searching, Jan found the quilt and discovered its USSC stamp. Since then, she was able to share the quilt with her guild, the AQSG, and the descendants of Dublin.

The Home of the Brave Quilt Project (www. homeofthebravequilts.com) is a nationwide non-political activity started by Don Beld, a CA quilter. Volunteers make quilt replicas of the Cross X quilt of the USSC and present them to the next of kin of service men and women who have died during Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom.

How Can You Help? You can make a block and bring it to me, Ellen, at Guild meetings. I will have quick block directions available. Texas has lost 561 soldiers, and many more quilts are needed.

Quilt Project Committee (commonly known as QPC)

This committee encourages members to try techniques or practice ones to improve their work. We provide kits with instructions and fabric for blocks utilizing various techniques – both hand and machine work. The committee is taking time out to celebrate the holidays with our families and friends. Hope you are too. Check our table in January. Though we showed five finished tops at the Nov meeting, we have more in progress. So I'm sure you can find something to try -- or just to help out the guild.

Oh by the way, if you have kits checked out that you've been meaning to do, you might want to finish them for the January meeting -- one of the prizes is a jelly roll of hand dyed fabric!

Storybooks and Quilts to Go

International Festival at Houston was amazing! So many beautiful art quilts and traditional quilts, and WAY too many vendors with new and wonderful 'stuff'. Thanks again to Melanie and Brook for all their hard work making the bus trip fun and easy for everyone.

One of my favorite booths to visit every year is the Hmong Pandau needle work. This year I was able to purchase two gorgeous story cloths and some reverse applique blocks to go with our bilingual book Grandfather's Story Cloth. Gail Dickman has accepted the challenge of using them to construct the quilt to go with this touching story about a little boy and his grandfather. Doris Patterson also adopted a book at the meeting, leaving only two more available titles.

Dea Jae Shore brought in a finished quilt to go with Texas Star, a book about a quilting bee on a wintry Texas day, along with a duplicate copy of The Quilt Story. It is nice to have extra copies of some of our most popular books on hand – sometimes they are handled so much that they need to be replaced. Pamela Hoelscher finished a top for Abby Longbotham and the Quilt which needs someone to layer and quilt it before it can be added to distribution.

Just a reminder – we are not having services at the Christmas party, but I will accept any finished quilts and will have the Grandmother Kits if anyone wants a quilt and book to share with little visitors over the holidays.

This is "A San Antonio Fiesta" which was the Raffel Quilt from our Quilt Show in 2007 when Janet Miller was chair of the show. It was designed by Janet along with help from Barbara Hodge and her Beemates, and worked on by many Guild Members, you can see their names on the pieces of confetti comming out ot the cascarones! It won 1st place in its catagory at the Dallas Show, and at the NQA Show in Columbus Ohio. It was won by Dale Flashberg (a guild member), she truly has an heriloom to pass down for generations to come! Thanks Dale for sharing it with everyone that attended the Houston Show!

Congratulations to all that worked on this beautiful quilt!

It is a huge honor to have something in the Houston International Quilt Festival! Check out all of our GSAQG Guild members on the next 3 pages!!! Martha Kraatz made both of these quilts that were hanging at the Houston International Quilt Festival!! They were in a special exhit of Texas Award winning Quilts.
