President's Corner

FAREWELL

Since this is the last newsletter I will be writing as President of the Guild, I want to review the last two years.

As you all know I lost two very important people during my first year, my husband David and my very dear friend Virginia Wright. Because my girls don't live in San Antonio, the guild members became my family. I have thoroughly enjoyed my term as President, and really appreciate the work done by all the committees and the many people who were always willing to help.

It is now time to move on. I have put my house up for sale and will probably be moving closer to Austin where three of my daughters live, but nothing is definite. I plan to continue being a guild member and hope to continue coming to the meetings but will be less active.

I hope the guild will continue to grow. We have a very good board for everyone to work with. I ask everyone to continue to give the board their full support.

Once again I thank everyone for giving me the opportunity to serve the guild as President. I will never forget what it has meant to me.

Betty Opiela

UFO AUCTION: AN UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

The UFO Auction achieved its main goal: all had a good time. The donations were so generous that we had over 150 items auctioned, even combining 3-4 yards of fabrics, books, and patterns. Thanks to the "stash raiders" who made it all possible, especially Valerie Arcement and Sherry Allred.

Also thanks to all those who helped with the actual auction: Holly Nelson as bookkeeper, Karen Nanos as treasurer, and Betty Opiela as organizer of goods extraordinaire. A special thanks to Linda Sides who stepped up to the plate and helped organize the goods to be auctioned.

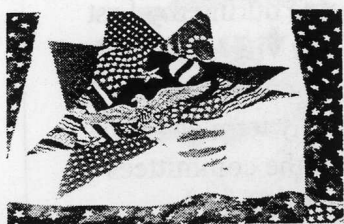

Another thanks to our three "best" buyers, Ruth Becker, Mary Ruth Flores, and Kitty Janiga. We WILL NOT be so indiscreet as to mention the amounts they spent.

Another added bonus: we brought in $1303.00 with the auction and had no unclaimed unpaid items at all! See you in 2004. Thanks for the fun, Amy Cottrell

PATRIOTIC QUILT PROJECT

Our Patriotic Quilt project is about finished....BUT we have three blocks without any identification of the maker!

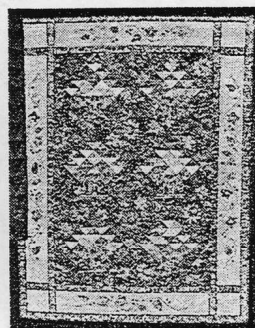

If you made one of these three blocks, please call Amy at 830-981-8832 so that your name can be on the quilt label.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS Valerie Arcement

We hope Bea Scheel will soon be up and dancing after a second round of surgery in October for stubborn bunions!

Congratulations to Dixie Bradbury and Shelby Bonner for having their shop, Seventh Heaven, featured in the Fons and Porter Shop Hop section of their magazine, Love of Quilting, Nov-Dec, 2002.

And congratulations to Susan Bradley for her entry in the Houston show.

FALL AT THE ALAMO

A big thank you to the ladies that made Fall at the Alamo such fun. Carol Rouse, Terry Hooze, Betty Tope and Andrea Brown. This was our fifth year and we made good progress on our quilt. One whole block was quilted! For our new members, Fall at the Alamo is a re-enactment - done in period costumes - depicting village life in the fall before the spring battle of 1845 at the Alamo. There are lots of things going on with the Texana Army, The Village Doctor, storytellers, and crafters of all sorts. As participants we are always fed breakfast, a hearty lunch and given a souvenir. All in all a real good time sitting around the quilt frame and talking.

This activity is open to everyone who wants to make a costume and the pattern library has dress patterns. Before you make a dress contact Mary Ruth Flores to have the fabric and dress pattern authenticated. It needs to be a reasonable facsimile of 1835 to 1845 garments. The date for next year is the third Saturday in October, October 18, 2003.

If you have any questions, call Mary Ruth at 694-6059. Hope to see you there next year.

What Ugly Quilt

There ain't no such thing as an ugly quilt,
that's something you learn as you get older.
When my wife ask my opinion of one of hers,
like a man, I just stood up and told her.

I found out the hard way how dumb that was,
'cus like a man I just couldn't see.
When it comes to commenting on your wifes quilts,
honesty ain't never the best policy.

This one had blacks and grays and other colors too,
like yellows and blues and some red.
Kind of plain looking if you know what I mean,
An opinion that I would soon dread.

Then the silent treatment started, you know the kind where you just don't know what to think of her look.
When you ask her "honey, whats for dinner tonight,
Or did you really forget how to cook?

Then you finally ask her, "whats the matter dearest,
has your love for me started to wilt?
Why would you think that she sarcastically asks,
"just because I made an ugly old quilt"?

Now try to get out of that one if you think you can,
try taking back all those things that you said.
About that ugly old quilt that your wife made,
The ones with those awful colors of black, gray and red.

Now I ain't very smart, and I know that,
but I learned to get rid of the guilt.
I learned the secret of being married to a quilter,
"there just ain't no such thing as an ugly quilt"!

They are all beautiful, wonderful, "one of a kind",
"darling, your talent is something to behold".
That's the way to get along with your quilter,
Tell her "your quilts are worth more than gold"!

She will love you for that, and brag about you,
and about the happy life that was built.
All because you remembered that rule one is,
"there just ain't no such thing as an ugly quilt"!
