President's Letter

What a wonderful time of year this is! Relax, unwind, fix yourself a cup of hot coffee or cocoa, and reflect on the good times while planning for another year. A slower pace and cooler weather creates the perfect atmosphere for piecing, quilting or just dreaming of the next major project you want to begin.

In the past I set aside New Years day to begin a new quilt. While my husband watched all the games, I cut and snipped and stitched and pressed. However, this January 1 finds me making plans for our guild.

National Quilting Day is March 19, and a Happy Birthday to us in May as we celebrate 25 wonderful years. July brings the auction and summer retreat while September is quilt show time. January to May is “Transcending 9/11: Quilters’ Reflections” exhibit at the Institute of Texan Cultures. Throw in lots of local shows and of course the Houston Festival . . . well this may not be a relaxing year but definitely a stimulating one.

I must take this opportunity to thank the outgoing board members for their service. Larry Beauchamp has filled many terms including two as president; Ida Blankenship, Sharon McCall, Lari Jensen, Candace Tull and Lorraine Kilpatrick have also served faithfully. After more than 10 years of dedication Valerie Aecement is leaving her position as Sunshine and Shadows reporter. We know each of you have spent many hours and we say a big THANK YOU. THANK YOU. THANK YOU.

I must also take this opportunity to thank you for allowing me to represent you and the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild. I consider it an honor and look forward to working with an outstanding board. With your help and support our organization will grow and prosper.

Ruth Fealty

Program Notes

FEBRUARY — Guest speaker will be Margaret Miller — author of many books — Angle Play, Easy Pieces, Strips that Sizzle, Smashing Sets. Margaret is a nationally renowned quilter & teacher. There will be a 2 day workshop — all day Friday and 3 hours on Saturday.

This will be a change from the usual format, but she really doesn't like to do 3 hour workshops. You may see her designs on her WEB site at www.millerquilts.com. The lecture on Saturday will be "Looking Ahead" and will feature many of her quilts.

December Update: Quilt Blocks from Japan

On December 10th, a meeting involving 20 volunteers from a number of quilting and sewing organizations throughout greater San Antonio took place at Central Market on Broadway. During the meeting volunteers who have generously given of their talent, time, and energy in support of the upcoming exhibition at the Institute of Texan Cultures were acknowledged. In addition, those present divided into groups to discuss a number of activities that will be demonstrated during the Transcending 9/11: Quilters' Reflections exhibition. These crafts include Temari Thread Balls, Sashiko, Folded Fabric Flowers, and Origami, as well as additional activities appropriate for children. Group leaders were identified and "how to make" sessions for each of the different crafts are being scheduled for early January. If you would like to attend any or all of these meetings, learn how to make these beautiful craft items, and help prepare kits for demonstrators, please let us know and we will send you the details. By the time you read this update, contributing members of the CQDBee will have received their special calendars based on our first annual CQDBee Calendar Quilt Challenge. We met for our holiday celebration at La Madeline I at the intersection of 281 and 1604 at 1:00 P.M. on Sunday, December 12. What fun we had looking at all of the quilts that are now part of our group's 2005 calendar! LaRue is planning on making her "Shirts and Christmas Ties" quilt. We brainstormed ways for her to include actual ties in her quilt. The original block in Gundy's "Shades of Spring" quilt is the block she designed and made for the thank you quilt for the Japanese quilters. And Ruthie's "Winter Wonderland" really put us in the holiday mood. All twelve quilts designed for our calendar have wonderful stories behind them and we loved hearing each story. Our next meeting is scheduled for January 16 at Memories by the Yard. We will meet as usual from 1:00 – 3:00 (or more like 4:00, as Mary Ruth pointed out). In all the hustle and bustle of the season we forgot to decide on our focus for the next meeting, but there is no doubt we'll have plenty to talk about after the holidays. We'd love to have you join us in January. We wish you a wonderful holiday and look forward to seeing you in the New Year.

Ethel Howey: Master Quilter

By Mary McCarthy

“Love what you do, and share” is the advice of Ethel Howey to quilters everywhere. One of the founders of the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild, Ethel was born in Hawaii of Japanese descent. Without a quilting background, Ethel nevertheless made her first quilt in 1939 at the age of eighteen. It was a green and yellow Hawaiian style breadfruit pattern and it whetted her appetite for appliqué. After settling in San Antonio in 1972 Ethel took classes with Pat Kelly. Subsequently, she worked and taught at Dorothy Milligan’s quilt shop on West Avenue.

This very creative quilter has entered many local and national quilt shows. Somewhere in her house are numerous ribbons and awards but the winning has always been secondary to the joy of sharing her enthusiasm for the art of quilting. This enthusiasm has led to her membership in four local guilds – Medina Quilt Guild, Alamo Heritage Quilt Guild, University United Methodist Church Quilt Guild and the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild. Ethel has served as President of the GSAQG and was its first Corresponding Secretary.

On the national level, Ethel holds membership in the International Quilt Association, the American Quilter’s Society and the National Quilters Association. Her dedication to quilting and her eagerness to share her expertise led Ethel to be certified by the NQA as both a judge and a teacher. In these capacities she has been to Japan and to several states. In addition to teaching hand piecing, Baltimore and Hawaiian appliqué, and wearable art, Ethel especially enjoyed working the Valerie Arcement and others on the design of a watercolor style quilt depicting San Antonio’s skyline. This quilt was presented to Kumamoto City, Japan in 1994 as part of a sister city exchange.

With over forty quilts to her credit and many years of service to quilters around the world, Ethel Howey is a living testimonial to her tenet “Love what you do, and share.”

This article was compiled from interviews conducted in 2001 as part of the National Quilting Association’s “Boxes Under the Bed” program.
