May Program:
Guild's 44th
Birthday,
Biggie Bag
Reveal,
& Work Day

President's Letter

Thanks to April speaker Jean Ann Bryant for showing her beautiful quilts and helping us identify our colorful quilt personalities. What a great way to illustrate that people with different strengths and styles can work together for amazing results. Hopefully Jean will visit us again when she returns to San Antonio to see friends and family.

Happy 44th birthday to the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild! Come help us celebrate at our annual party and workday after the May business meeting. This is always a fun day because we work together on Guild charity projects and eat cupcakes! If you missed signing up in April, please contact 5th VP for Programs Mary McCarthy to be sure we have food for you. A word of caution: We work first, then eat. I can't emphasize this strongly enough. Rumor has it violators may be stitched in the ditch.

Another highlight in May will be our Biggie Bag reveal. As many as 55 quilt tops will be on display. Members will vote for their favorites, and the three top vote-getters will win gift cards for their makers. All tops feature fabric from the Guild stash and will be donated to Guild committees. Remember that there will be no book or magazine sales, free table, or Bring & Brag in May.

Fabric artist Beth Cunningham will be teaching beading techniques in June. What a great opportunity to learn more about this popular embellishment technique. You may just learn just the technique to make your next project your best one ever.

Plans for the 2024 Auction are in full swing. I hope each member will participate in some way in this exciting online venture. Please don't hesitate to join in the fun. This is a learning process for us all. Check our website, Face Book, and Instagram accounts to see changes as they take place.

Sincerely,
Elaine

WELCOME NEW MEMEBERS!

WALKER RANCH BEE Revised Time

I just found out on the 17th of this month, that Walker Ranch has changed their. policies. After talking with the new mgr, and the director of classes, I persuaded to give us 3 hours. FROM 9-12 . STILL ON THE 3rd WEDNESDAY OF THE MONTH.

If you have a small machine and want to bring it, please do so, with an extension cord. Or we can put tables together, so you can stretch a quilt out, to pin it etc. Remember to bring any snacks, or drinks, as they only supply water.

Also cutting fabric, (bring your own cutting board.) and hand-sewing are good options.

Any questions, please call Shirley Carter at 210-452-3801

NEW TIME for Quilt Projects Finishing Committee!

AFTER the guild meeting EACH MONTH THAT WE DO NOT HAVE additional activities. Plan to stay for an hour or so to see what QPFC has to share with everybody. This is a fun way to get more involved...you can do as much or as little as you wish, and you'll get to know people and see what quilts and projects are in progress.

We will meet about 30 minutes after the guild's full meeting ends. Plan to stay, bring sack lunch if you'd like. Everyone welcome. Please come.

Thanks, Ida

5. 2024 Pieces of the Past, 168: Joe the Quilter, by Ellen Hernandez

Joseph Hedley was born about 1750 and lived in Northumberland, England. He was a tailor by trade and lived in a small cottage with his chickens in Warden. During the Industrial Revolution he became a well-known quilter and had commissioned work to Scotland, Ireland, and as far away as America. Known as 'Joe the Quilter' he was a skilled craftsman who designed and quilted with linen and cotton.

One of his quilting patterns became known as 'Old Joe's Chain.' Most of his quilts are now lost but there is one at Bowes Museum in Barnard Castle, two at the Beamish Living Museum of the North in Stanley, and one at Tulle House Museum in Carlisle. Two-thirds of one of the quilts at Beamish was carefully traced for a re-created whole cloth eight-foot square quilt. This quilt had been originally been ordered and bought directly from Joe in 1820 by an English family and passed down through the generations.

Sadly, Joe the quilter's life came to a tragic end. He was brutally murdered in 1826 at the age of 76. His death and the search for the murderers made headlines across the country. A large reward was offered, but the case was never solved. Some speculated that thieves may have believed rumors that poor Joe had a hidden fortune, and they killed him searching for it.

An archaeological dig on the original site of Joe's cottage gave clues to the exact size and scale. The cottage was recreated by the Beamish Museum using recorded floor plans and information about Joe. The cottage was furnished according to records of an auction of his possessions. You can see a video of the work on YouTube – The story of Joe the Quilter's cottage. Local craftsmen used traditional methods to make the thatched roof with 1400 bales of heather, oak trees were hand felled and shaped into beams and boards, and there were wattle and daub makers constructing the walls (mud and straw.)

Two quilt projects were made for the opening of Joe's cottage. Students and community members made drawings of things they loved about Northumberland which were made into three quilt panels. Women from the prison in Durham made a quilt based on a ballad about Joe that was written in the 1800s. Fun fact: The Beamish has a collection of 350 historical quilts.

Looking for a New Orleans Quilter

I have a pattern map of New Orleans. As one might imagine, not everyone wants to quilt a map of New Orleans, or any city, for that matter. However, I find that people from New Orleans can be pretty intense about things that are uniquely NOLA. The idea is to quilt the river and city streets, then add embellishments showing favorite places, landmarks, parade routes, etc. I am NOT going to do this, but someone from NOLA might have fun with it.

If you are interested, please call Cathy Wallace at 210-698-0269, or email to bwallace125@satx.rr.com.

Landa Library Bee Takes a Field Trip!

Members of the Landa Library Bee enjoyed a fun field trip to the Texas Quilt Museum on Saturday, April 20. Each of the Museum's three rooms hosted a show of its own: Kaffe Fassett: 85 and Fabulous in the Main Gallery, International Quilt Festival Winners 2023 in Gallery II, and Prism Play: A Full Spectrum of Art Quilts in Gallery III. The mix of artistry and craftsmanship on display was simply stunning.

Seated: Jay, Jari, Donna, Amada
Standing: Ched, David, Viki, Trish

All guild members may advertise in the newsletter one free business card size each year. Must be quilt related.

Congratulations Cyd Hughes! Winner of the Block of the Month Drawing

What is this Block of the Month Drawing?

Beginning in May, 2023 as a fun way to use up scraps, share some quilt block ideas, and offer members a head start of getting a quilt top going – monthly Guild meetings have featured a Block of the Month Drawing.

In April 2023, an instruction sheet for the May Two Step block was distributed at the meeting and posted in the PDF section of the Guild website. Members were encouraged to make as many Two Step blocks as they liked, knowing that for every block submitted they got a chance to win ALL the blocks turned in. No restrictions applied to what the winner could do with the blocks – use them for a quilt of their own, create a charity quilt, let them sit in their UFO box waiting for inspiration to strike. Whatever!

During the May 2023 meeting over 60 blocks were submitted and ultimately won by Alicia Santiago. And what did she do with all those blocks? She handed them over to Bright Hopes and they found their way into quilt tops for the kids at Roy Maas.

One year later, the Block of the Month Drawing is still going strong. Cindy King and Viki Ash introduced the May 2024 block, the Disappearing Nine Patch, at the April meeting. If you didn't pick up a copy of the instruction sheet – no worries. You can find it the Guild homepage. Just scroll down to the PDF section, print out the sheet and get sewing!

Bring your blocks to the May meeting – and who knows – maybe YOU WILL WIN THEM ALL!

Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West

This exhibition, the first of its kind, explores the path of Black history in the West with a timeline of original pictorial quilts. The timeline begins in 1528, with Esteban's dramatic story, which marks the arrival of Africans in the American West and continues through the Civil Rights Movement.

Dispelling the myth that Black people in the old West were mostly cowboys, Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West, shows rich diversity in their occupations and achievements in society, religion, education, and the arts.

Choosing quilts as the visual medium for this exhibition accentuates the intersections of African Americans in the Western Frontier while informing others about the art form and its important role in African American history.

This exhibition is organized by The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art and Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi, curator, historian and artist. The quilts have been created by the Women of Color Quilters Network especially for this exhibition.

Admission is free to the Stark Museum of Art located at 712 Green Avenue in Orange, TX.

Quilt Garden at Shangri La Botanical Gardens & Nature Center

Beginning in April, Shangri La Gardens will feature a Quilt Garden. These gardens will showcase a fusion of traditional quilting patterns using plants as the medium. Among the myriad of quilting designs featured will include the North Star, Shoo y, Log Cabin, Bow Tie, Flying Geese, Pinwheel and 9 Block patterns. Each garden promises to be a kaleidoscope of color, intertwining the narrative of Black Pioneers, while fostering a deeper appreciation of both art forms. History in the Making

Giddy up and go!

Spring/Summer Exhibits at the Museum Celebrate Rodeo Winners and Fiber Excellence!

La Grange, Texas—April 30, 2024—Just like the upcoming Texas weather, things are heating up at the Texas Quilt Museum with the installation of two new exhibits. The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo Prizewinners and Fiber Art Now: Excellence in Fibers III will be on display from May 2-August 31, 2024.

“The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Prizewinners exhibit is a vibrant celebration of Texas culture. And one of the fascinating aspects of this annual event—one of Houston’s biggest and most beloved—is the Quilt Contest.

Welcome to the Farm (62" x 62") by Katie Awe

The Contest is divided into Adult and Youth categories. The Museum will display the Blue Ribbon winners from both of them, totaling 35 works in all in Galleries I and II.

“The quilts are confirmation that the art of quilting is still very much alive in Texas, celebrating both the rich history of the art form and the applications of many traditional techniques and styles onto contemporary quilts,” says Museum Curator Vicki Mangum. “You’ll be impressed by the workmanship and beauty of these winners—from all age levels!”

There’s also a sampling of talented works from promising young student artists at La Grange High School. Guided by Art Teacher Jack Vollbaum, the students were charged with creating “Western Art.” All of the pieces were finalists for judging, and some went-on to win Gold Medals or Blue Ribbons at the 2024 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

Epoch #2 (80" x 73") by Chriss Johns

Gallery III will host the Fiber Art Now: Excellence in Fibers III exhibit, with a total of 19 works on display.

"This is an international exhibition that features the best of contemporary fiber and textile art," Mangum says.

Artists were encouraged to explore innovative techniques and push the boundaries, according to organizer Fiber Art Now magazine. Museumgoers will see a range of innovative quilted textiles juried by Sue Benner, the award-winning artist and educator.

"The quilted works are intriguing and educational in the use of materials and imagination. The artistry is truly extraordinary, and we are so pleased to have this exhibit!" Mangum adds.

MUSEUM ACTIVITIES!

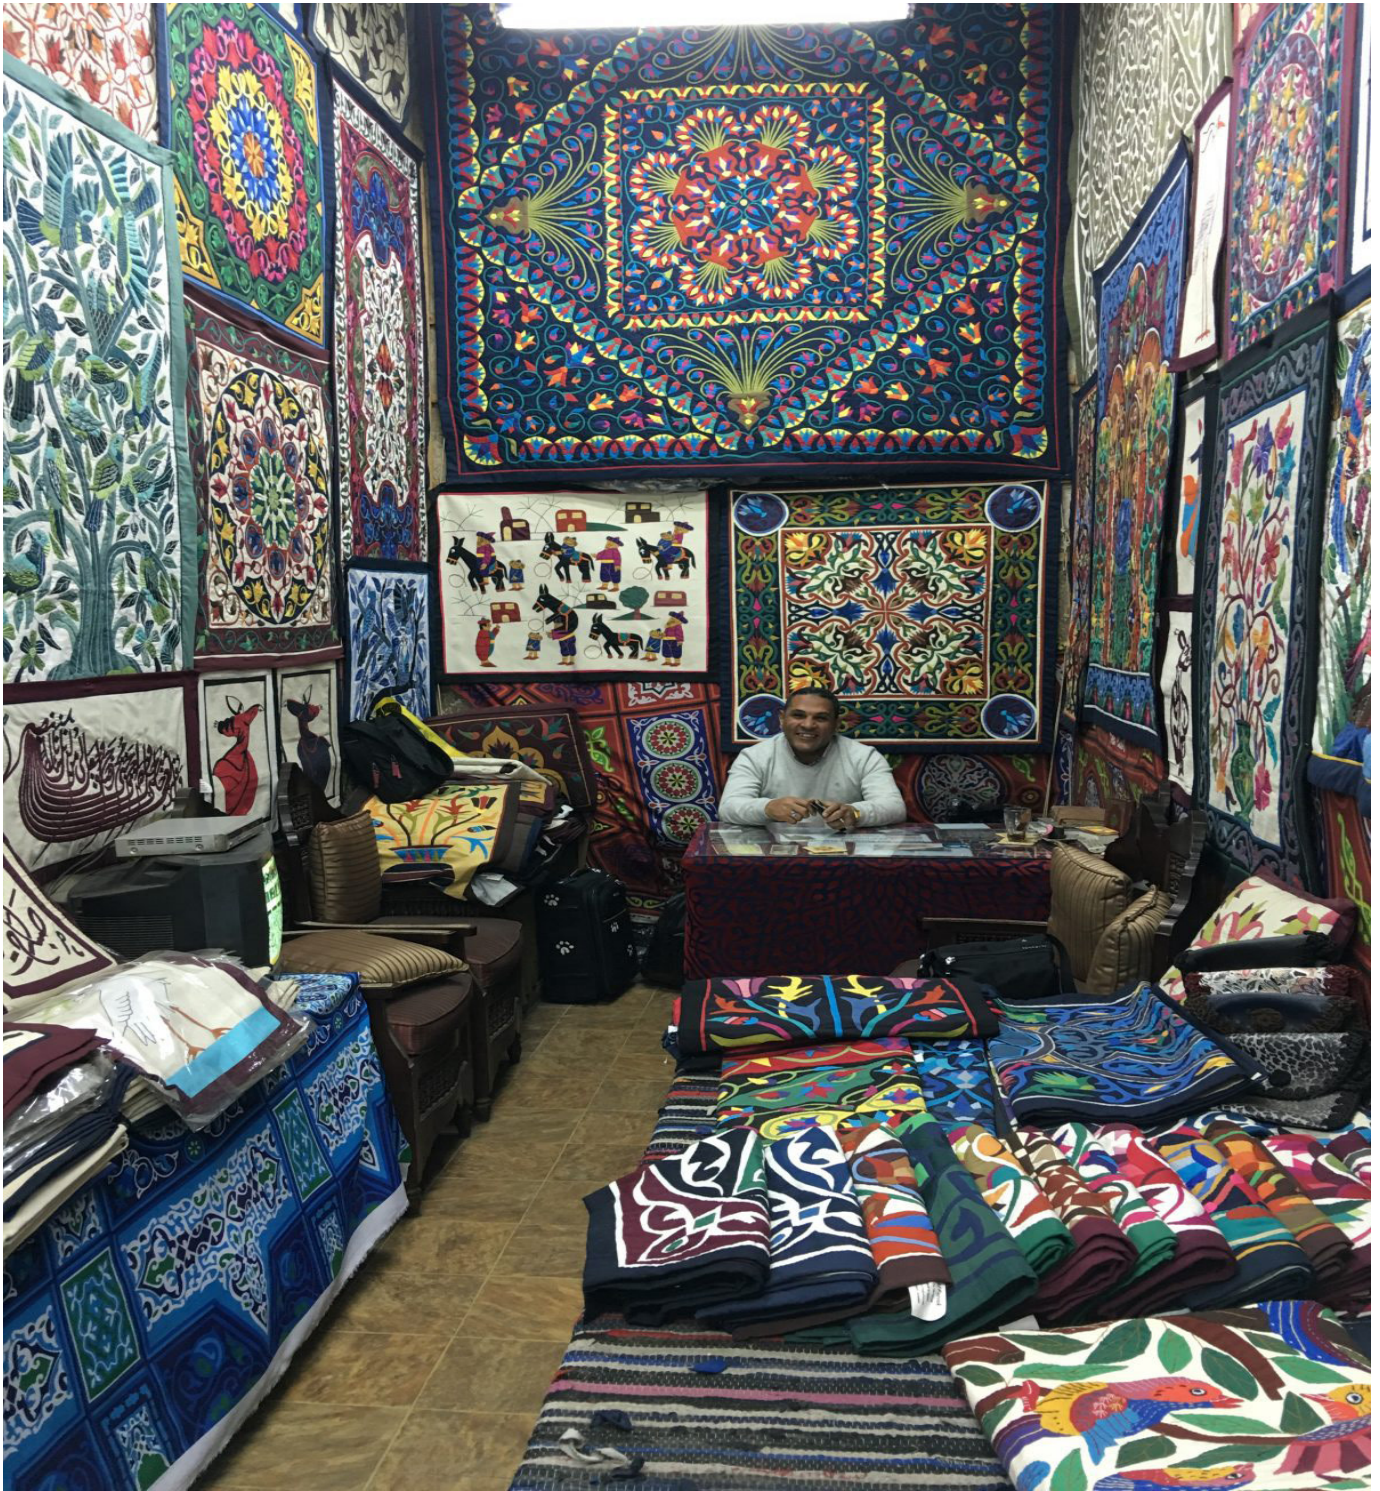

May 4, 10:30 am-Noon—"Plant-a-Memory" Family Garden Activity. Kids will learn about the art of gardening through an interactive, hands-on presentation. They will create their own miniature terrarium garden to bring home. ($10 per child)

June 1, 11 am-2 pm—"Butterfly Jubilee!" Join us for a number of activities including a live butterfly release in the garden, free gallery walk, live music, food, shopping, tours, and kid-friendly games! You can also "purchase" a butterfly to be released to benefit the Museum!

The Texas Quilt Museum is located at 140 W. Colorado St., La Grange, Texas 78945. Hours are 10 am-4 pm Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays. For more information, visit www.TexasQuiltMuseum.org. Also see us on Facebook, Instagram, X, and Threads!

KHAYAMIYAS AND THE TENTMAKERS OF CAIRO

Somewhere in the maze that is Cairo's market district, there's a narrow lane winding between rows of tightly packed buildings, known as Khan Khayamiya, or Street of the Tentmakers. The narrow street is busy, noisy, and bustling with pedestrians, bicycles, small delivery trucks, and local residents going about their everyday business. Spilling out onto the sidewalks are rolls, heaps and bundles of multicoloured, richly designed tent panels, hand-stitched by the shopkeepers and tentmakers of this small Egyptian community.
